JUNE 2010

ROCKIN' ON THE RIVER

Some of the 51 coaches scheduled to attend the rally began arriving on the weekend before. We couldn't wait to see old friends.

The rally began with Tuesday night's "Meet and Greet" where everyone was treated to lots of appetizers and got reacquainted with old friends.

Wednesday morning started with an excellent breakfast followed by the first timers meeting with four first timer couples. Everyone had a free day to explore the area. We were given free passes to ride the trolley that loops from North Little Rock over the river to Little Rock. In the afternoon the Chamber of Commerce treated everyone to ice cream. That made for a cool break on a hot afternoon. We enjoyed the frozen Peach Bellini's at happy hour and dinner was wonderful. After dinner we were treated to a local DJ. Lots of us went back and sat by the river and visited which is the best thing about the rallies, catching up with everyone.

Thursday morning the golfers left with cloudy skies. It did clear so that they were able to finish their play. The ladies left in the morning for their luncheon. Everyone enjoyed the lunch and especially the strawberry soup. During Happy Hour member Stan Powers treated us to music on his keyboard. Then the rain started. We were supposed to go to the ballpark for hotdogs and a baseball game but many chose to go other places even though some hardy ones went for their hotdog. After hearing about all the people who lost their lives just west of us in the same storm it was hard to be upset about a rained out baseball game.

On Friday morning after another wonderful breakfast everyone went their separate ways to enjoy the area. Some visited the Clinton Presidential Library, the Pharaoh Exhibit or went to see the world famous Peabody Ducks. In the afternoon Jerri Woods taught a beading class. The ladies made some beautiful necklaces and had lots of fun. Since the club President and Secretary could not be in attendance on Saturday the Business meeting was held before happy hour.

Saturday morning a Skymed seminar was presented by Stan Griffith. Everyone enjoyed the sites in the area and another great meal. After dinner Sonny Burgess and the Legendary Paces entertained everyone.

Sunday morning everyone waved goodbye until the next time. See you in Las Cruces.
