

Toys for abused kids

The Kerr County Sheriff's Department accepted a donation of toys from the Monaco Wan-na-go's during the organization's motor home rally in Kerrville.

Shown with the toys for abused children are, from left, are KCSO Sgt. Behrens, Rally Master Jerry Jenkins and Co-Rally Master Kay Williams.

The Monaco Wan-na-go's is comprised of Monaco Coach owners from a six state area around Texas. They have rallies four times each year and come to Kerrville generally every other year. This year, they had 205 attendees in 103 motor homes. The food and entertainment were all Kerrville-based, and the attendees generally spent seven to eight days in town.

Article and pictures courtesy of Kerrville Daily Times on Tuesday, November 18, 2008